If DPWN, in its sole judgment, determines that the premises where the Show is to be held have become unfit for occupancy, or if the premises are materially interfered with by reason of strike, embargo, injunction, act of war, act of God, any other emergency, or any act or event not the fault of DPWN, then DPWN may terminate the Agreement. In the event of such termination, the Exhibitor waives any and all damages and agrees that DPWN may, after deducting all costs and expenses, including a reserve for claims, refund to the Exhibitor as and for complete settlement and discharge of said Exhibitor's claims and demands his pro rata amount of all monies paid by all Exhibitors.

DPWN makes no representation concerning any Sponsor or Exhibitor nor its products or services and the admission to the Show of any Sponsor or Exhibitor constitutes neither an endorsement, recommendation nor representation by DPWN of any Exhibitor or Sponsor or its products or services. DPWN has not and will not undertake or perform any "due diligence" function as to any Sponsor or Exhibitor or its products or services and each Exhibitor or Sponsor agrees to display only services and products which have economic viability and that fully comply with applicable law, regulations and professional standards.
